

Oceanside Public Library Events

Adult Summer Reading Program, "Oceanside's Treasures"

Books and Brew—August 9

4:00 p.m.—Civic Center Library Community Room

The library will host a "Books and Brew" program celebrating one of Oceanside's treasures, local craft beer. There will be a speaker from Bottled and Kegged, an exhibit at San Diego History Center in Balboa Park, celebrating the history of beer in San Diego County. The program will educate even the most avid craft beer lover! Please note, no alcohol will be served.

Lost Treasure of the Trinidad

August 10—11:00 a.m.—Civic Center Library Foundation Room, 2nd Floor

Join local historian and author Richard Crawford for an exploration of the "Lost Treasure of the Trinidad", one of 3 Spanish ships exploring the California Coast in 1539. In 1952, an Oceanside resident discovered European tools, Spanish gold, and skeletal remains of 22 people off of our coast. Could it be the lost ship? Find out August 10!

World Music Concert Series

Bunnell Strings

Saturday, September 7 at 1:00 p.m.—Civic Center Library

Not long after they learned to walk, Keren, Kimberly, Corrie, Cara, & Ross Bunnell each started studying violin through the Suzuki String Method and they haven't stopped since! As their studies advanced, each sibling found a niche in various instruments and soon they were playing professionally as a quintet of two violins, viola, cello, and bass. Currently in great demand for concerts throughout California, the siblings have won awards in various competitions, their familial bond eliciting a tremendous audience response both for the remarkable ensemble interaction and compelling story. Performing repertoire from Bach to Beatles, countless classical and contemporary works have been written or arranged to highlight their unique style.

Besos de Coco

Saturday, October 5 at 1:00 p.m.—Civic Center Library

Besos de Coco, translated from Spanish as "Coconut Kisses," is comprised of three dynamic women: vocalist/guitarist Lorraine Castellanos, bassist Evona Wascinski, and tap percussionist Claudia Gomez. The merging of talents and influences from each of these women results in a delicious sound that maintains its roots in the romantic music of the old-world Mediterranean, Latin American, and Jazz traditions. Besos de Coco aims to establish an intimate connection with their audiences whether it is through a lyrical soul-searching Afro-Brazilian composition, a pulsating Spanish rumba, or a sensually driving tango. All performances are free, and suitable for all ages. The World Music Series is sponsored by the Friends of the Oceanside Public Library.

Reading Rewards You Program

A Library card provides you with great benefits, such as the ability to check-out books, eBooks, and audio books for free; low-cost DVD check-outs; language learning databases; free high-speed Internet access, and much more.
