

CLASS SPECIFICATION

WATER TREATMENT SUPERVISOR

Class specifications are intended to present a descriptive list of the range of duties performed by employees in the class. Specifications are not intended to reflect all duties performed within the job.

DEFINITION

Under general direction, to supervise and coordinate water treatment and filtration operations including potable water treatment; to coordinate assigned activities with other divisions, outside agencies and the general public; and to perform a variety of tasks relative to assigned area of responsibility.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES--Examples of duties performed by employees in this class may not include all required duties, nor are all listed tasks necessarily performed by everyone in this class.

Coordinates the organization, staffing and operational activities for the performance of water treatment and filtration; operations; participates in the development and implementation of goals, objectives, policies and priorities; recommends and implements resulting policies and procedures; identifies opportunities for improving service delivery methods and procedures; identifies resource needs; reviews with appropriate management staff; implements improvements; directs, coordinates and reviews the work plan for assigned water treatment services and activities; assigns work activities and projects; monitors work flow; monitors and reports amount of water being produced and treated; analyzes and recommends operational procedures and preventive maintenance work; ensures regulatory compliance of water filtration systems; maintains awareness of changes in regulatory requirements and implements changes into operations; inspects water meters, pump stations, reservoirs and pressure control stations; plans and schedules system maintenance; selects, trains, motivates and evaluates water treatment personnel; provides or coordinates staff training; works with employees to correct deficiencies; submits budget recommendations; attends and participates in professional group meetings; stays abreast of new trends and innovations in the field of water treatment system operation; performs related duties and responsibilities as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Knowledge of:

- Operational characteristics, services and activities of a comprehensive municipal water treatment
- and filtration program;
- Modern and complex principles and practices of water treatment system maintenance;
- Tools and equipment used in the maintenance, construction and repair of water treatment and filtration systems;
- Principles of municipal budget preparation and control;
- Principles of supervision, training and performance evaluation; and
- Pertinent Federal, State and local laws, codes and regulations

Ability to:

- Select, supervise, train and evaluate staff;
- Oversee assigned water treatment plant operations;
- Ensure compliance with applicable water quality standards, rules and regulations;
- Coordinate and schedule preventive maintenance programs;
- Provide technical advice on all operational matters including water treatment and filtration;
- Read and interpret construction blue prints and schematics;
- Prepare clear and concise reports;
- Communicate clearly and concisely, both orally and in writing; and
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with those contacted in the course of work.

Experience and Training

Experience: Four years of responsible water treatment system operation experience including one year of lead or supervisory experience.

Training: Equivalent to the completion of the twelfth grade supplemented by specialized training in water science, environmental science or a related field.

License/Certificate:

- Possession of an appropriate, valid California driver's license.
- Possession of a valid Grade IV Water Treatment Plant Operator certificate.

WORKING CONDITIONS

Environmental Conditions: Water treatment plant environment; exposure to noise, dust, grease, smoke, fumes, gases, potentially hazardous chemicals; work with water.

Physical Conditions: Essential functions may require maintaining physical condition necessary for walking, standing or sitting for prolonged periods of time; moderate or light lifting; operating motorized equipment.