

Energize Your 2015 Resolutions

Make Saving Money and Energy One of Your 2015 Goals

Every year many of us make both personal and professional New Year's resolutions. This year ENERGIZE your 2015 resolutions by taking action to save money and energy. SDG&E offers tools to help you get started. Here are some of our favorites:

Level Pay Plan

Level Pay Plan makes your energy bill more predictable from month to month. Check it out at sdge.com/levelpay.

Energy Use Alerts

Enroll in energy use alerts to help keep you on track. Set spending goals, receive usage notifications and even get a weekly energy use report. Enroll today at sdge.com/energy-use-alerts.

My Account

Understanding how and when you use energy is essential to finding ways to reduce. SDG&E tools, like My Account, can help. My Account is the one-stop shop for all your personal, secure energy information and services. Get started today at sdge.com/myaccount.

Happy savings in 2015!
