Participants will create a journal with personal drawings, cut paper, and written pieces that illustrate their identity. Drawings of patterns from personal objects to illustrate cultural backgrounds and ideas about home and belonging will slowly fill the journal.

Bhavna will then use these ideas to create a cut paper installation at the Oceanside Museum of Art. This installation will be the story of Oceanside, as told through the stories of workshop participants.

This project is funded by a grant from the Creative Catalyst Fund of The San Diego Foundation.
