- KOCT's kick-off event for its new historical series, The Adobes & Ranchos of North County, at the Oceanside Library was a big success. Many of the film's participants attended to view a short summary of the series as well as lovers of history from as far away as Orange County & Temecula.

The entire series is now available as video-on-demand via KOCT.org AND we've included a number of other historical and related programs from the KOCT archives. So if you want to know hbmore about the history of North County, its pioneers and even watch an early movie filmed in Oceanside, go to KOCT.ORG.

Some of this Bob Steele 1930 western movie was filmed at Rancho Guajome.

- KOCT documented the entire 2nd Annual North County Economic Summit that was held on March 10th at the Sheraton Carlsbad Resort. The audience heard from a number of speakers and panelists about our national, state and San Diego north county economies.

In addition to being shown on KOCT in May, you can watch the entire series by going to KOCT.org-Video-on-Demand-Special-Events. We have programs on the key speakers such as the Senior Economist for Wells Fargo, Mark Vitner and the President of BW Research, Josh Williams, as well as programs on the two panels of experts.

- Our new season of the Voice of Oceanside will soon begin and you'll hear interviews with the Mayor and all of our elected officials, the Fire Chief, OPD'S Lt. Leonard Cosby and the Superintendent of the school district, OUSDs' Duane Coleman. We'll also have a program on the San Diego County of Aging and their senior services as well as an update on the many ongoing and planned freeway projects-like the I5-78 Merge. These programs will air extensively on KOCT's channel 19 and will be available at KOCT.ORG as Video On Demand.
