The Storm Markers
Civic Center Library
Tuesday, February 2
5:30PM

Featuring brutally candid testimony, The Storm Makers is a chilling exposé of Cambodia's human trafficking underworld and an eye-opening look at the complex cycle of poverty, despair and greed that fuels this brutal modern slave trade. More than half a million Cambodians work abroad and a staggering third of these have been sold as slaves. Most are young women, held prisoner and forced to work in horrific conditions, sometimes as prostitutes, in Malaysia, Thailand and Taiwan.

Out in the Night
Civic Center Library
Tuesday, March 1
5:30PM

In 2006, under the neon lights of a gay-friendly neighborhood in New York City, a group of African-American lesbians were violently threatened by a man on the street. The women fought back and were later charged with gang assault and attempted murder. The tabloids quickly dubbed them a gang of "Killer Lesbians" and a "Wolf Pack." Three pleaded guilty to avoid a trial, but the remaining four — Renata, Patreese, Venice and Terrain — maintained their innocence. The award-winning Out in the Night examines the sensational case and the women's uphill battle, revealing the role that race, gender identity and sexuality play in our criminal justice system.

pbs / pov FILM SERIES

Civic reflection discussions are intended to create much needed meaningful conversations among citizens about social & cultural challenges to try to improve our common life.

This is a different kind of discussion than you may have participated in before. We are not trying to reach a consensus; it is okay if people do not agree. The goal of Civic Discussion is to listen, and we are likely to leave the discussion with more questions than we started with. That is okay.

BOOK CLUBS

Here at Oceanside Public Library we love literature so much that we want to shout it from the rooftops! But we know actions speak louder than words, and we aren't shouters (we are a library... shhhh!).

Every month we offer five distinct book clubs, each with a librarian to guide and add to the discussion. Join us, you'll love it.
