

Aug—Sept

Oceanside Museum of Art

Coming exhibitions:

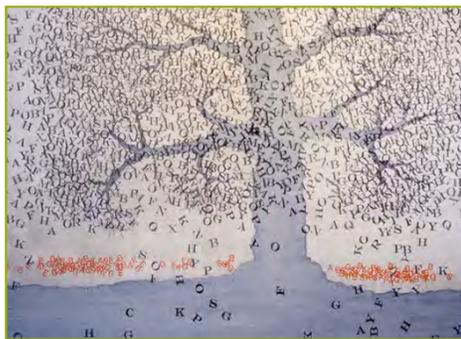

Irving Gill: A Comfortable Fit
Opening August 20

This exhibition is part of Irving J Gill: New Architecture for a Great Country, a multi-site exhibition. 11 San Diego and Southern California cultural organizations are joining resources to tell the story of Irving J. Gill, an extraordinary San Diegan, and one of the key founders of modern architecture. Exhibitions and programs will be held throughout San Diego County to explore Gill's life and work.

Space, Structure, Light:
The Art of Russell Forester
Opening August 20

Russell Forester was one of southern California's most innovative postwar modernist artists. This retrospective's title springs from the repetitive elements used in Forester's wide body of artwork.

333's Music at the Museum
Nena Anderson
August 20 from 7-9 p.m.

Nena Anderson will rock the museum with indie and Americana tunes while 333 Pacific serves gourmet appetizers, desserts, and specialty wines.

Free Family Art Day with Fiber
September 4
1-4 p.m.

Artist Michelle Montjoy will bring her over-sized looms and have fiber projects for artists of all ages. No art experience is required and all art supplies will be provided. Light refreshments will be served.

Oceanside International Film Festival

August 7– 14

Held every August, Oceanside International Film Festival (OIFF) is an opportunity for independent filmmakers to have their work screened and judged.

The organizers have put together a program of 60 films from the U.S., Spain, Greece, Singapore, Ireland, Turkey, United Kingdom, Malaysia, Canada, Denmark, Switzerland, and Australia.

Get ready to walk the red carpet with film industry guests and film lovers!

Website

First Friday

Oceanside Art Walk

Friday, Aug 5 & Sept 2
5:00—8:00 p.m.

Celebrate the thriving art scene in downtown Oceanside!

The Oceanside First Friday Art Walk showcases live performances, music, poetry, art education, and pop-up galleries in local businesses and public spaces. Free!

Website

Children of Eden

Star Theatre

402 N. Coast Highway
Sept 23—Oct 2

Stephen Schwartz, composer of WICKED, GODSPELL and PIPPIN, once again proves why he is one of musical theatre's greats.

CHILDREN OF EDEN brings you a joyous and inspirational musical based on the book of Genesis. This production and its wide variety of characters will take you on a journey through childhood, parenthood and strength amidst adversity....not to mention centuries of unresolved family business!

Website