

FEB—MAR

THE ARTS are ALIVE in OCEANSIDE!

Oceanside Museum of Art

Four Part Lecture Series 101 Paintings for Your Bucket List

Take a journey around the world and explore must-see masterpieces in this four-part series. Robin Douglas will reveal hidden meanings and insider details behind 101 essential works. Along with lively conversation, enjoy libations and snacks. Save with bundle pricing on all four lectures, or register for each individually as your schedule allows.

THURSDAYS, FEBRUARY 1, 8, 15, & 22 from 6-7:30 p.m.

Free First Sunday of Every Month!

Oceanside Museum of Art is a premier regional art museum and a leader of arts and culture in San Diego County. In addition to several highly praised contemporary art exhibitions per year, museum programming includes classes, lectures, docent tours, parties, concerts, films, culinary events, and chartered travel to other cultural art venues and destinations. Don't miss this monthly chance to explore creativity at its finest!

Ellen Dieter: Color, Joy, Shape, Vitality Through March 18

Dieter's paintings evoke a unique and extraordinary fusion of skill and artistic abandon, while her organic compositions capture the ephemeral vitality of modern life, exploring the highs and lows of the human experience.

Oceanside Museum of Art

Website

704 Pier View Way
Oceanside CA 92054
(760) 435-3720

SUNSHINE BROOKS THEATRE 217 N. COAST HIGHWAY

Tony Award nominee for Best Play. From the author of Doubt and Moonstruck comes a romantic comedy set in rural Ireland. Anthony and Rosemary are lovelorn farmers who haven't got a clue when it comes to love. These hopeless singletons will need to overcome a bitter land feud, familial rivalries and their own romantic fears to find happiness. Full of dark humor and poetic prose, John Patrick Shanley's tenderhearted portrait reminds us it's never too late to take a chance on love

TICKETS

FREE INTERNATIONAL FILM

Fuocoammare/Fire at Sea— Italy 2016

Friday, February 9 at 6:00 p.m

A documentary film capturing life on the Italian island of Lampedusa, a frontline in the European migrant crisis. Directed by Gianfranco Rosi.

English subtitles. Admission is free!

Location: Little Theater OC3601

THE STAR THEATRE

February 16—25

The Star Theatre Company Presents NUNSENSE! A musical comedy about seven sisters from The Order of the Little Sisters of Hoboken that discover that their cook, Sister Julia, Child of God, accidentally killed the other fifty-two residents of the convent with her tainted vichyssoise while they were off playing bingo with a group of Maryknolls! Fraught with hilarity, chaos and calamity!

TICKETS

402 N Coast Hwy, Oceanside