COMING SOON...

Coming this fall “Blade 1936” a modern Italian eatery will be located at 401 Seagaze in downtown Oceanside. This restaurant's name is a tribute to The Blade-Tribune, a local newspaper that resided in the building from 1936 until the 1960s. This historic building was architect Irving Gill's last project and is being revived by local architect Kenneth Chriss.

Pho Ha Cali has leased 3905 Mission Ave. in the Mission Douglas Plaza center, the former Coco's site.

Amazing Lash Studio Oceanside has leased 2515 Vista Way, Ste. B in the El Camino North shopping center opening this fall 2018.

FYI...

The City of Oceanside held a public workshop on Draft Tier 1 Agritourism Activities outlined in the Oceanside Agritourism Strategic Plan.

In 2017, the City Council directed staff to initiate text amendments to the agricultural zoning regulations to facilitate Tier 1 Agritourism activities, such as limited food processing and limited retail sales, as incidental uses on sites primarily used for agricultural purposes. In fulfillment of this direction, staff developed a draft Tier 1 Agritourism Activities Matrix reflective of public feedback received from the three agritourism workshops hosted by Visit Oceanside and the City. To view the Draft Agritourism Tier Activities Matrix: <https://bit.ly/2uSRbhQ>

Check out the Agritourism Documentary focusing on the importance of having sustainable farmland in the local community by KOCT. The documentary was funded by the County of San Diego's Board of Supervisors 2017-2018 Community Enhancement Grant. The documentary features interviews with Jason Mraz, a Musician and Local Farm Owner, Eric Larson from the San Diego County Farm Bureau, Local Farmers, City of Oceanside Staff, Restaurateurs and Chefs. This documentary is a great example of growing Agritourism in Oceanside! <https://youtu.be/pJyeXdpHyc8>

MiraCosta Community Education and Workforce Development is launching new programs in cybersecurity, ROV/drone operations and biomedical equipment maintenance and repair. <http://tci.miracosta.edu/>

Did you know that in 2017, Tourism brought $351 million to Oceanside, supported over 3,330 local jobs, and generated $22.1 million in local and state taxes? Read more at Visit Oceanside: <https://bit.ly/2L839uj>
