365 SURFBOARDS

Slideshow lecture and book signing with author Ben Marcus
Saturday, December 7 • 6 p.m. • Free Admission

This book is a chronological display of surfboards from the caballito de tortora of Peru, to olo and alaia and then through kookboxes, Hot Curls, balsa, twin fins, thruster and everything in between, up to the present. Earlier this year, author Ben Marcus and photographer Lucia Griggi drove from Seattle to La Jolla, photographing surfers, shapers and collectors with their favorite surfboards including Matt Warshaw, author of The Encyclopedia of Surfing, feeling a little landlocked in Seattle; Gerry Lopez carefully unbending a broken leg in Bend; Greg Noll on the Smith River; Dale Webster in front of the schoolhouse they used in the Hitchcock movie The Birds; Jeff Clark with a modern version of a classic 1991 Mavericks gun; and Wingnut with three of his favorites, in his Pleasure Point backyard. The book is already popular. Be sure to attend Ben's slideshow lecture and book signing to get your autographed copy. 304 pages. $20.

HOBIE: Master of Water, Wind and Waves

Author book talk and signing with Paul Holmes

Sunday, December 15 • 2-4 p.m. • Author talk at 3 p.m. • Free Admission

Hobie, the man and the brand, created an empire of surfboards, catamarans, monohull sailboats, powered craft, radio-controlled model gliders, apparel, sunglasses and more. His prime motivation was always simply, in his own words, "to build them a toy, and a game to play with it." Twenty-seven months in the making, this superb quality 12" x 9" 300-page hardcover book comprises 120,000 words of text accompanied by 585 photographs and illustrations that document Hobie's entire life and career. It's an epic by any measure and a fitting testament to an amazing man as he enters his eightieth year. $60.
