

World Music Concert Series

Zimbeat (African)
February 8 at 2:00 p.m.

Zimbeat is a San Diego-based ensemble that performs the dynamic village music of Zimbabwe, Africa. Hypnotic interlocking melodies and spirited African rhythms culminate in the captivating music that is found in traditional and contemporary Zimbabwe.

Todo Mundo (Latin Rhythms)
March 8 at 2:00 p.m.

Todo Mundo ("All the World") blends the musical flavors of Rumba, Reggae, Samba, Gypsy, and other South American and Caribbean rhythms into an irresistible groove that has been moving dance floors and connecting with audiences throughout North America, South America, and Europe.

FullSet (Irish)
March 27 at 12:00 p.m.

All accomplished young musicians in their own right, FullSet create a stunning and unique sound that is full of energy and innovation, whilst all the time remaining true to their traditional roots. In recent years this group has received much critical acclaim, even being compared to supergroups such as Danú & Altan by respected Irish Music Magazine.

Danny Green Trio (Jazz)
April 5 at 2:00 p.m.

Danny Green's A Thousand Ways Home reached #17 on the Jazz Week Charts for national radio air-play, and remained on the charts for 15 weeks!

It was voted into KSDS Jazz 88.3's "Top 10 Jazz Album Releases of 2012."

It was also nominated for "Best Jazz Album" at the 2013 San Diego Music Awards.

These free concerts will be held in the Civic Center Library Community Rooms, located at 330 N. Coast Highway in Oceanside. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

The World Music Series is sponsored by the Friends of the Oceanside Public Library.
