California Surf Museum's Annual Members' Party Celebrate CSM and San Onofre on February 23!

CSM has two reasons to have a party on Sunday, February 23: it's CSM's 28th birthday and it's a special celebration of the fascinating San Onofre Beach Culture exhibit! Join in on the festivities, from noon to 4 p.m., and celebrate our first five years at Pier View Way as we continue to preserve our surfing heritage.

Eve Fletcher, a San Onofre stalwart for many, many years, and surfing icon Paul Strauch have agreed to be our honored guests.

San Onofre has had its own informal group of musicians through the years, known as the "Bamboo Room Philharmonic." We have invited the current musicians to be on hand to provide just the right musical vibe for the occasion. Bring your ukulele, harmonica, or gut-bucket and strum along!

Timothy Cooley, associate professor of Ethnomusicology at UC Santa Barbara, will be autographing copies of his latest book, Surfing About Music, in which he interviews E.J. Oshier and others about the southern California beach music scene.

Wear your favorite San Onofre or CSM t-shirt or jacket and you'll fit right in! Of course there will be food and other fun surprises!

Admission: CSM members free. Not a member yet and want to see what CSM is all about? We welcome those interested for $10.
