MINGAFEST 2014

Saturday, May 3 from 1-4 p.m.

Join Oceanside Museum of Art, Oceanside Rotary Club and Main-Street Oceanside for MINGAFEST 2014! "Minga" is a word used by certain native South Americans which means "A coming together of people to work for the benefit of all". A grand vision for North County is that people can live and work in the most gratifying and fulfilling area in San Diego County. To ignite this vision we are throwing a large Minga party for the entire community. Guests will enjoy wine tastings, beer and food tastings. For your entertainment, enjoy lively bands, art performances, interactive art making and all exhibitions open for view at OMA. MINGAFEST is a fundraising event that will support dozens of local nonprofits in North County. Admission is $40 in advance and $50 at the door. Visit oma-online.org, call (760) 435-3721, or get your tickets at the door the day of the event.

22nd Annual Oceanside Days of Art (ODA)

April 26-27 from 10:00 - 5:00

ODA is a juried fine art festival featuring over 100 local artists displaying a variety of unique artwork including paintings, sculpture, stained glass, ceramics, fine jewelry, photography, and more. The free festival has live stage performances, children's and adult's hands on art activities, street chalk artist, painting and sculpture demonstrations, and a delicious variety of food choices in the food court. The Oceanside Museum of Art, located adjacent to the event, will have free admission during both days of ODA. On Sunday April 27, the Oceanside Earth Festival will be taking place across the street with earth friendly activities for everyone to enjoy. Oceanside Days of Art will be held at the corner of Coast Hwy 101 and Pier View Way in downtown Oceanside. See you there!
