FROM DOOZIES TO DOO-WOP: AN EVENING OF WORDS, MUSIC, AND SOCIAL ENTERTAINMENT

The Friends of the Oceanside Public Library are proud to present Richard Lederer and The Alley Cats for an exclusive event on Thursday, February 12, 2015, at 5:30 p.m. at the Sunshine Brooks Theatre. Lederer, acclaimed author, columnist, media personality, and self-anointed "verbivore," will use his gift of words to entertain the audience with a spoken-word performance. The Alley Cats will close with a humorous and energetic a cappella doo-wop show. Tickets are $25 and will include a free reception when the doors open and refreshments in the lobby during intermission. Tickets can be purchased with cash or check at either the Civic Center Library or the Mission Branch Library, or by credit card at fromdooziestodoowop.eventbrite.com. The Sunshine Brooks

Theatre is located at 217 N Coast Highway in Oceanside, and patrons will find available parking at the Civic Center Library. Seating is limited for this event that is likely to sell out. All proceeds will benefit the Friends of the Oceanside Public Library.
