OCEANSIDE LIBRARY AND HOUSING DIVISION TO HOST SEMINAR FOR RENTAL PROPERTY OWNERS

Join the Oceanside Public Library and the City of Oceanside Neighborhood Services Department, Housing Division for a Rental Property Owners' Seminar on Tuesday, March 19, 8:00 -11:30 a.m. in the City Council Chambers, 300 North Coast Highway. The program will include informative presentations by knowledgeable representatives from Interfaith Community Services, Law Offices of Kimball, Tirey & St. John LLP, Legal Aid Society of San Diego, Inc., Oceanside Housing Authority and the Oceanside Police Department's Crime Prevention Team.

This event is part of Oceanside Public Library's multi-event program, Book to Action: Homelessness and the Housing Crisis in North County, which includes a community-wide read of Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City by Matthew Desmond. This grant-funded series aims to increase awareness of a national crisis and spark conversation resulting in locally relevant programming. This seminar intends to help rental property owners develop thoughtful and informed landlord practices.

Continental breakfast will be served at the beginning of the event. Free copies of the book will be available while supplies last. Please visit <https://evictedbook.eventbrite.com> to register for this free event.
